

Light Contact Paragraphs

1. Dan didn't think he could fix the fan he found at the dump so he asked his friend Hank to help him. Hank showed Dan how to check and change certain parts of the fan. Dan thanked Hank for all his help and said he'd try to repay him some day.

2. Sue had hardly finished setting out some food for the children, when the kids charged into the kitchen. She shouted to the children as they ran toward the snacks on the table, "Don't take any potato chips. Save the chips for Thursday. Take two cheddar cheese chunks and a chocolate chip cookie." The kids took their snacks and quickly chomped down the food, chewing faster than chipmunks.
